Application deadline July 15th

To qualify for this scholarship applicants must have not more than three years of teaching experience.

Applications must include:

- 1) A cover letter with a brief bio of the applicant. This information is to be used for the presentation of scholarships at the conference should you be successful
- 2) A resume of academic and music educational background. Include any plans for furthering your education.
- 3) A description of your teaching class including
 - number of years you have taught
 - size of class
 - grade levels taught
 - participation in festivals and exams
 - recitals and other events students participate in
- 4) Because this scholarship is based partly on financial need, please elaborate.
- 5) Two letters of reference.

In addition submit a detailed response to the following questions.

- 1) Why does a student need exposure to more music than the graded level books?
- 2) What repertoire and other resources do you have in your present library?
- 3) What music or other resources would you like to purchase if you are successful in winning this scholarship?
