

Our Credo

We believe:

Teaching is a lifelong learning process. We respect and support teachers at all stages of their professional development.

The rural teacher is just as important as the urban teacher.

It is important for teachers to cooperate with other music educators in the community.

The teacher's role includes promoting the value of music in the lives of students, their families and their communities.

Our Code of Ethics

APTA members shall adhere to the following principles:

Teachers shall make no false claims regarding themselves or their students. As our organization does not require qualification, teachers shall not sue the letters APTA after their name when advertising their studio.

Teachers shall charge a rate equitable for (a) his/her area and (b) his/her training and experience.

Teachers shall not criticize the work of other teachers or try to entice students from other teachers.

Teachers' conduct towards other teachers shall be characterized by courtesy, respect and good faith, always striving to offer encouragement and support.

Fair and honest business practices shall be observed at all times.

What is APTA?

The Alberta Piano Teachers Association (APTA) is an affiliation of piano teachers either actively teaching or interested in teaching piano.

Our mission is to provide encouragement, inspiration and educational opportunities for all piano teachers in an atmosphere of co-operation and mutual respect.

Corporate membership fee is $60 per year. Individual memberships are also available at $45 per person.

Corporate Membership

As a corporate member of the Alberta Piano Teachers Association, one member of your business will receive all the benefits of a personal membership plus you will:

- Be given a business-card sized listing in our print directory.
- Be listed as a corporate member on our website, www.aptaonline.net, and a link will be provided to your business website. If you employ any piano teachers, your business will also appear in our website teacher directory..
