Bronwyn Schuman Modelling Musical Stewardship Scholarship $500

Application deadline July 15th

Music can encourage, uplift, and motivate. It can inspire communal connection, and it can provide voice to internal emotions. Music's soothing and moving force can facilitate individual and communal healing. As musicians, we are able to bring music-making and music-learning to the communities in which we find ourselves. Using our musical gifts for the betterment of such communities is an act of musical stewardship. As music teachers, we can model musical stewardship by providing our students with opportunities to share their music-making with the community. This scholarship will be provided to one teacher who has modelled musical stewardship by providing his or her student(s) with the opportunity to musically engage within their community.

Applications must include:

1. A cover letter, including contact information (e-mail and mailing address)
2. A musical bio, including musical education background and plans for further education (max. 300 words)
3. A description of what you love about teaching (max. 500 words)
4. One letter of reference
5. Optional additional information (max. 500 words):
  - In what way would this scholarship assist you financially?
  - How do you share music with your community?

In addition, submit a response to the following questions (max. 1400 words)

1. Describe the student event you held (pictures are encouraged but not required)
2. How did the community benefit from this event or experience?
3. How did your students benefit from this event or experience?
4. How did you benefit from this event or experience?
